

NAME

seahorse-daemon - seahorse pass phrase caching agent

SYNOPSIS

seahorse-daemon [ OPTION... ]

DESCRIPTION

Seahorse is a GNOME application for managing encryption keys.

This is the daemon program which provides services to other parts of Seahorse.

OPTIONS*Help options

-?, --help

Show summary of all options and exit.

--usage

Display brief usage message and exit.

Application options

-d, --no-daemonize

Do not daemonize seahorse-daemon.

Additional options

In addition, the usual GTK+ and GNOME command line options apply. See the output of --help for details.

VERSION

This man page describes seahorse-daemon version 0.9.x.

BUGS

If you find a bug, please report it at http://bugzilla.gnome.org/enter\_bug.cgi?product=seahorse.

AUTHORS

Jacob Perkins <jap1@users.sourceforge.net>

Jose Carlos Garcia Sogo <jsogo@users.sourceforge.net>

Jean Schurger <jk24@users.sourceforge.net>

Stef Walter <stef@memberwebs.com>

Adam Schreiber <sadam@clemson.edu>

This man page was originally written by Michael Mende <debian@menole.net> for the Debian system.

COPYRIGHT

Copyright (C) 2001, 2002 Jose Carlos Garcia Sogo

Copyright (C) 2002, 2003 Jacob Perkins

Copyright (C) 2004, 2006 Stef Walter, Adam Schreiber

LICENSE

You are free to distribute this software under the terms of the GNU General Public License.

Documentation and help files are covered by GFDL license.

SEE ALSO

seahorse-tool(1), seahorse-agent(1),